

WINDSOR LAW IS PLEASED TO OFFER A
BACK TO SCHOOL IEP OR 504 TUNE UP
ADVISORY CONSULTATION

Most parents don't know how to tell if their child's IEP or 504 Plan is being followed or even if their child has a good IEP or merely has a 504 Plan when they likely need an IEP.

Windsor Law offers this service to both analyze your child's IEP both procedurally and substantively.

A procedural violation relates to the procedures outlined and to be followed in the IEP (Individualized Education Plan) process.

A substantive violation occurs when the school fails to provide the student with services and accommodations outlined in the IEP (Individualized Education Plan.)

Your BACK TO SCHOOL IEP OR 504 TUNE UP ADVISORY CONSULTATION will include:

- An IEP Overview and analysis done by a certified ESE teacher;
- Results reviewed with parents by two education law attorneys; and
- Guidance regarding steps to be taken regarding options available to enforce compliance.

A thorough analysis of options available including Due Process, State, or OCR Complaints that can be filed if the school refuses to comply with their obligations under the IDEA.

A BACK TO SCHOOL IEP OR 504 TUNE UP ADVISORY CONSULTATION is an excellent way for parents of students with IEPs or 504 Plans to make sure their student starts out this school year strong!

Call or email Administrative Assistant Amy Lanman at:
941-330-6437 or amy@windsoreducationlaw.com

